

The Three-Person nature of God and Worship

So What?... It is important to get God right.

Are you worshipping a false god? (Exodus 20:1-3)

God Revealed

One Essence (Deuteronomy 6:4)

Three Persons

- The Annunciation to Mary (Luke 1:35)
- The Baptism of Jesus (Matthew 3:16-17)
- The Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-19)
- Paul's Benediction (2 Corinthians 13:14)

Did you expect understanding God would be simple? (Isaiah 55:8-9)

'Strange' does not equal 'Untrue'

- One in Essence; Three in Persons

Encountering God by embracing the mystery (Jeremiah 9:24)

- Many things in life are mysteries to us.

Small Group/Personal Reflection Questions:

1. "It is impossible to keep our moral practices sound and our inward attitudes right while our idea of God is erroneous or inadequate. If we would bring back spiritual power to our lives, we must begin to think of God more nearly as He is." [A. W. Tozer, The Knowledge of the Holy]
2. Do you agree with Tozer? Do you think that it is important for us to better understand the nature of the God as we worship. Why or why not?
3. How do you find yourself relating to:
 - God the Father?
 - God the Son?
 - God the Holy Spirit?
4. Do you feel as though you are drawn more towards one than another or perhaps relate to one differently than another? If so, why do you think that is?
5. How do Luke 10:21, Matthew 28:19, 1 Cor 13:14, & Eph 4:4-6 help us see the three in one nature of God?
6. Isaiah 55:8 show that God Himself recognizes that there are times when our finite human minds will not be able to understand him. Do you find it comforting or intimidating that you cannot fully understand God? Why?
