

Why Can't I Change?

Bringing Transformation to the Deep Places

“...anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person.
The old life is gone, a new life has begun.”

2 Corinthians 5:17 NLT

Join us on a 7-week journey into discovering God's part and your part in changing you. We will address how it is impossible to be spiritually mature while remaining emotionally immature. We will use Peter Scazzero's Emotionally Healthy Spirituality and Rick Warren's God's Power to Change Your Life as study guides.

Let's discover how emotional health and contemplative spirituality unleash the Holy Spirit inside us so that we might know the power of an authentic life in Christ.

Tip of the Iceberg (message outline)

Weekend of January 10, 2015

10 signs that emotional immaturity is adversely affecting your spiritual growth:

1. Using God to run from God
2. Ignoring the emotions of anger, sadness, and fear
3. Dying to the wrong things
4. Denying the past's impact on the present
5. Dividing our lives into "secular" and "sacred" compartments
6. Doing for God instead of being with God
7. Spiritualizing away conflict
8. Covering over brokenness, weakness, and failure
9. Living without limits
10. Judging other people's spiritual journey

Going deeper with humility and hope.

"This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!"

2 Corinthians 5:17 NLT

Resource Questions:

1. When you think about the 10 'signs' mentioned in the message (see outline), which 2-3 resonate most to you? Take some time to reflect on why?
2. Why do you think we are okay reading and reflecting about physical / spiritual / intellectual health but are reluctant to do the same about emotional health?
3. One of the Desert Fathers said that when we reflect adequately on our own faults and defects we won't have time to judge our neighbour (cf., Matt 7:1-5). Do you agree or disagree with this? Why/Why not?
4. Does the way you function as a parent, spouse, employee, etc. reflect more your culture and family of origin or the ways of Jesus? Why is this such a hard question to ask ourselves?
5. When you think about the 'iceberg model' of our total health, what do you think keeps us from looking below the surface?

Continued

6. What gives us hope to look below the surface of our lives?
7. How do you feel when you think about the depth of your troubles in relation to how much God loves you (he offers you salvation at great cost to himself)?
8. Read Luke 5:8-11. Why did Simon Peter feel like a “sinful man”?
 - a. Think about one struggle in your life that goes deep below the surface of your life. As you do this, think of Jesus fully accepting you, just as he did Peter.
 - b. Give thanks to God for the humility that comes through honest assessment (so we see God’s love and learn to love others well)
 - c. Give thanks to God for the hope that comes from Jesus Christ (because we can have power to change by his Spirit in us).

The Balance of Power: God's Part & My Part in Changing Me

Weekend of January 17, 2015

From the Bible:

12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, 13 for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Philippians 2:12-13 ESV

Changing Me

"...to will and to work for his good pleasure." vs 13b

"You are an unceasing spiritual being enmeshed in flesh. You have an eternal destiny in God's great universe." Dallas Willard

1. Why bother keeping my soul: "the me that never ends"
2. Soul change starts now

God's Part

"...for it is God who works in you..." vs. 13a

1. Empowered by God's Spirit in you.
2. Informed by God's Word
3. Shaped by our circumstances

My Part

"...work out your own salvation..." vs. 12a

1. Slowing Down.
2. Anchoring in God's Love
3. Breaking Free From Illusions

Resource Questions:

1. What connections do you see between now and what's next (i.e., the afterlife)?
2. Since the spiritual (soul) and physical (body) are integrally connected, what does this say about the impact of our daily habits on our soul? Explain.
3. When you think about the connections between your spiritual habits now and what survives of you in the afterlife, what is most comforting? What is most concerning or disconcerting? What will you do about it?
4. When you think about God's Holy Spirit living in you, does this give you hope for your soul in terms of real change and health? Why / Why not? (Continued)

5. What role does reading/hearing God's word have in keeping your soul healthy?
6. How does God work in our circumstances to shape us and prepare us for what is next (i.e., afterlife).
7. If your life is like a ball of unleavened dough (dough without yeast) and salvation like leaven (yeasted dough) in what ways must salvation be "worked out" in your life?
8. Which of the three "My Part" actions will be most challenging for you? Which do you expect to bring the greatest reward?
9. If it is possible, keep some notes this week about your "soul keeping". How did you slow down? How did you anchor yourself in God's love? How did you break free from illusions?

Facing Reality: Learning to deal with losses over a lifetime

Weekend of January 24, 2015

From the Bible:

4 "A time to cry and a time to laugh. A time to grieve and a time to dance."

Ecclesiastes 3:4 (NLT)

34 "Where have you put him?" he asked them. They told him, "Lord, come and see." 35 Then Jesus wept. 36 The people who were standing nearby said, "See how much he loved him!" 37 But some said, "This man healed a blind man. Couldn't he have kept Lazarus from dying?"

John 11:34-37 (NLT)

Gradual and Catastrophic Losses

1. Gradual

- We lose our youthfulness
- We lose our dreams
- We lose our stability in transitions
- Our influence and power decrease

2. Catastrophic

- Physical death
- A friend or child commits suicide
- Spouse has an affair
- Divorce

Grief Observed

1. Bad Grief

- Denial
- Stoicism
- Addiction
- Getting stuck

2. Good Grief

- Be Attentive
- Wait
- Embrace Limits
- Grow

Resource Questions:

1. When you think of loss, do you mostly think of gradual loss or catastrophic loss? Why?
2. Can you think of times where you experienced "bad grief"? What would you do differently today?
3. When Jesus experienced the death of his best friend (Jn 11) how did he feel and how did he express his loss?

4. Since Jesus was about to bring Lazarus back from the dead, why was he so sad? What does this say about loss in general?
5. How does Jesus experience of loss help us grieve by acknowledging both the reality of our loss and the reality of our hope?
6. In 1969, Dr. Elisabeth Kübler-Ross noted that there are five stages to the grieving process (DABDA): 1) Denial; 2) Anger; 3) Bargaining; 4) Depression; 5) Acceptance. How does understanding grief as a process help us approach people who are grieving?
7. When you think of “bad grief”, which behaviour are you prone to exhibit?
8. Can you identify some losses in your life that you have glossed over or moved on too quickly instead of taking appropriate steps to grieve well?
9. What are some ways we can help people (ourselves) experience good grief?

Do You Know Who You Are?

Weekend of Weekend of January 31, 2015

From the Bible:

“Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. Point out anything in me that offends you, and lead me along the path of everlasting life.”
Psalm 139:23–24 (NLT)

“...you should examine yourself before eating the bread and drinking the cup.”
1 Corinthians 11:28 (NLT)

Three Blind “Me’s”

1. I am what I do - performance blindness.
2. I am what I have - possession blindness
3. I am what others think - popularity blindness

Seeing Your True Self

1. Start with God - He is for you.
2. Stop the Noise - be alone to listen.
3. Seek Friends - tell me what you see.

Praying for Courage

Resource Questions:

1. What is one thing you have discovered about yourself recently?
2. Why do you think the “three blind me’s” are so attractive for us in self-evaluation?
3. When David asked God to search him, was it for God’s benefit or for his own?
4. Why do you think Paul asks the Corinthians to examine themselves before taking the bread and the cup?
5. On an average day how much time do you take examining yourself or asking God to search your heart?

6. Why do you think learning to control our emotions often turns to learning to deny our emotions?
7. We are offering three steps to help you see your true self. What will you do to implement these steps in your life?
8. What are the obstacles that must be overcome to see yourself clearly?
9. What are some positive outcomes of seeing yourself as God does?
10. Self-awareness always requires courage. We will see things that we try to hide about ourselves and we will see some other things we didn't even know. Pray that God will give you the courage to see things as they are (the good, the bad, and the ugly) and to hear his words of grace and love as we redefine who we are based on God's truth and grace instead of human judgment and condemnation.

Weekend of February 14, 2015

“From the depths of despair, O Lord, I call for your help. Hear my cry, O Lord. Pay attention to my prayer.”
Psalm 130:1,2

“You light a lamp for me. The Lord, my God, lights up my darkness. In your strength I can crush an army; with my God I can scale any wall.”
Psalm 18:28, 29

“Where can we go? Our brothers have demoralized us with their report. They tell us, “The people of the land are taller and more powerful than we are, and their towns are large, with walls rising high into the sky!”
Deuteronomy 1:28

“Each time he said, “My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.” So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.”
2 Corinthians 12:9

Resource Questions:

1. Do you think “the wall” is a part of every Christian’s faith journey? Why or why not?
2. Have you seen a friend or colleague hit the wall? What is their reaction? What is your response? How do you see your own struggles reflected in those around you?
3. When you hit the wall what is your default response? Why do you think that is your default response?
4. St. John of the Cross talked about “the dark night of the soul”. He writes that in this time of despair, God is speaking and working in a way that is powerful and transforming. How have you experienced God working in your life during a difficult time?

5. When you consider the dark night of the soul and your own journey of faith what does God need to deal with in your life (e.g., pride, avarice, luxury, wrath, spiritual gluttony, spiritual envy, sloth)?
6. People who have encountered “the wall” and move through it tend to be more gracious to others who struggle. How has this been true for you? How have you become more gracious by moving through your wall?
7. When we realize that God can teach us life-transforming lessons through anyone anywhere, how does this change our understanding of growth and discipleship?
8. What are some ways we can prepare ourselves for the “wall” of our journey so that we can go through it instead of being repelled by it?
9. When you think about “life on the other side” what are your reasons for actually getting there instead of being stuck at the wall?
10. How can you encourage your Christian friends to go through their wall and experience life-transformation as God intended?

The Blizzard and the Rope. Weekend of February 21, 2015

“Be still and know that I am God!”

Psalm 46:10 NLT

The Blizzard

The hurriedness of life is a danger to the soul.

The Rope

A rhythm that connects us to God.

- Daily
- Pause
- Scripture
- Centering

The Grip

- Naturalists
- Sensates
- Traditionalists
- Ascetics
- Activists
- Caregivers
- Enthusiasts
- Contemplatives
- Intellectuals

Resource Questions:

1. When you reflect upon Psalm 46:10, why do you think hurriedness is a danger to the soul?
2. What areas of your life are too hurried? What can you do to slow down?
3. The story about the rope helps us understand our need to have a rhythm in our lives to connect to God. Which of the four parts of “connecting” do you find most challenging? Which do you find easiest?
4. In Jesus’s day, faithful Jews would pray three times a day. How often do you plan short times of prayer into your day? What do you think the primary benefit of shorter but more numerous prayer times would have as opposed to an extended period just once a day?

5. If God still speaks in a “quiet whisper” [1Kings 19:12] what is the likelihood you will hear? What can you do to be more attentive to the quiet whispers of God?
6. Which of the the nine types do you identify with best (naturalist, sensate, traditionalist, ascetic, activist, caregiver, enthusiast, contemplative, intellectual)? How has this affected your daily time spent with God?
7. Since God has made all kinds of people with all kinds of interests and dispositions, why do our practices of devotion often lack variation? Do you feel you have permission to design a devotional path that fits who you are as a person?
8. How will you apply this message to your daily habits of connecting with God so they will last a lifetime?

“This is my command: Love each other.”

John 15:17

A Great Gift

One of the greatest gifts we can give our world is to be a church who loves well.

A Great Problem

- Sin makes us “caved in on oneself” (Augustine)
- Demand that people view the world the way we do.
- I-It Relationships versus I-Thou Relationships (Martin Buber)
- Isolation occurs.

Love Weak

- Destructive Relational Skills:
 - Listening and speaking poorly.
 - False peace making
 - Creating counterfeit worlds about others.
 - Expecting others to know what I want before I say it
- Separate presence of God with presence of people

Love Strong

- Practice being present with God and people.
- Learn Skills to Love Well
 - Listening & Speaking
 - Checking Assumptions
 - Peacemaking
 - Mutually Agreed Upon Expectations

Resource Questions:

Scripture reading - John 15:1-17

1. “Love in practice is a harsh and dreadful thing compared to love in dreams.” Agree or Disagree? Why?
2. Jesus talks about us being connected to Him in John 15:1-8. He then talks about making a connection to others in John 15:9-17. How are these two ideas connected?

3. Seeing that Jesus was talking to his followers/disciples- this command to love starts within His church. How well do you love those within your church? What makes it difficult?
4. How does emotional immaturity create conflict for us and others? Where have you seen emotional immaturity in others? In yourself?
5. What are some ways we can use others? When do we treat others in an “I-It” relationship?
6. Which of the skills (Listening & Speaking, Checking Assumptions, Peacemaking, Mutually Agreed Upon Expectations, Self Awareness of Emotional Triggers) requires more practice from you so you can love strong?
7. In what practical ways could someone sense our church family loves well?
8. How will you apply this message when it comes to making Jesus command “love each other” evident in your relationships?
